WHAT IS THE SCRIBAL ANOINTING?

Let's start with the obvious question, what is a scribe? Well, by contemporary definitions a scribe is a writer. Therefore, the scribal anointing or the writer's anointing is the God-given blessings, gift, passion and/or desire of man to write the inspired and/or revealed word of the Lord with biblical accuracy and soundness of doctrine; and to deliver these revealed words to his people through prophetic writing and in oral tradition. This type of writing is inspired solely by the word of God – not research, theory, scientific conclusions, etc. The scribal anointing is upon creative writers and writers of instruction. I am, however, assigned by God to the ministry of the creative word.

Ezra was the only writer in and of the bible whom the scriptures referred to plainly as "a scribe of the instructions of God in heaven" and who "prepared and set his heart to seek the law of the Lord – to teach it and to walk in its statutes." (Ezra 7:10, 12) Using this gift and his passion for the Lord, Ezra was responsible for turning a rebellious nation back to God! Hallelujah! (Faithwriters.com)

The Writer in YOU!

Everyone has a story to tell, a lesson to teach or a message to convey. The majority of people will go to the grave with all of the stories, lessons, or messages they possess. Don't let that be you!

How do I know?

- Survey your thoughts
 - Review what you spend a great deal of time thinking about
 - Even subconsciously
- Review your conversations
 - Do you often force conversations to go in one direction: towards a theme
 - Do people say of you “You’re always talking about _____.”
- What frustrates you?
 - Often you can find your passion by finding out what irritates you.
 - The desire in you to correct a problem can be your hidden passion
- What is your passion?
 - Back to the beginning
 - The thing you can't stop thinking about.
 - Talking about
 - Being frustrated by
 - The thing you always find yourself doing

How do I start?

- PRAY, PRAY, PRAY
- This you will do all throughout if you are going to be successful
- After answering the questions in the above section, write a sentence that describes your passion.
- Passions can change from season to season
- Next, make a list of everything you know about your passion
- Listen to Myles Munroe's two videos on How to Write a Publish a Book on YouTube.
- From there, you will be well on your way to BECOMING AN AUTHOR!
