

ROMANS 6:1-14 STUDY GUIDE

Study title: Dead to Sin, Alive to God

Scripture: Romans 6:1–14 (KJV)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Main Truth

God's grace is not permission to remain in sin. Through Jesus Christ, we are called to walk in newness of life.

Opening Reflection

Why can familiar habits be difficult to leave behind?

Notes:

Read the Passage

As Romans 6:1–14 is read, notice:

- What Christ has done.
- What Paul says is true of believers.
- What Paul tells believers to do.

Passage Overview

Verses	Main emphasis
1–4	Grace calls us to a new life.
5–10	Union with Christ breaks sin's mastery.
11–14	Recognize your identity and yield yourself to God.

Helpful KJV Terms

- Reckon: Count or regard as true.
- Reign: Rule or exercise authority.
- Yield: Present or offer.
- Members: Parts of the body and their capacities for action.

Remember: Being dead to sin does not mean temptation disappears. It means sin is no longer our rightful master.

Discussion Questions

Observation — What does the text say?

1. What question opens the passage, and how does Paul answer it? — verses 1–2

2. What words or images connect believers with Christ's death and resurrection? — verses 3–10

Interpretation — What does it mean?

3. Why is the “old man” crucified with Christ? — verses 6–7

4. What does it mean to “reckon” ourselves dead to sin and alive to God? — verse 11

5. How do verses 12–14 distinguish living under grace from using grace as an excuse?

Application — How should we respond?

6. Where might sin try to exercise control in everyday life?

7. What would it look like to offer one part of your life to God this week? — verse 13

My Response This Week

One pattern I need to resist:

One righteous action I will practice instead:

When and where I will practice it:

My prayer for help:

Memory Verse

Romans 6:11 (KJV)

“Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

Weekly Challenge

Each morning, read Romans 6:11–13. Choose one concrete way to yield yourself to God that day.

Take-home reminder:

Because I am alive to God through Christ, I can respond to temptation with obedience rather than surrendering to sin’s rule.